

Mission Statement of CEEBA (Chief Executives of European Bar Associations)

CEEBA is the forum for chief executive officers in national bar associations and law societies in Europe.

The mission of CEEBA is to provide a forum for the unique role and perspective of its CEO members. Operating on a basis of mutual trust and friendship, the members of CEEBA seek to improve the representation, regulation and education of the legal profession in Europe to the benefit of both the profession and the public which it serves.

In order to fulfill this mission, CEEBA will:

Provide an effective and informal network for CEOs through annual meetings and other contacts.

Provide a forum for discussion and exchange of information and ideas on issues relevant to CEOs in national bar associations and law societies.

Provide a forum for discussion and exchange of information and ideas on representation, regulation and education of the legal profession in Europe.

Collect and exchange relevant statistics and factual information concerning the national bar associations and law societies in Europe.
